Vacancy on the Parish Council

Cuddington Parish Council needs a new team member; if you are interested and over 18 years of age live or work in the Cuddington, Sandiway or Delamere Park area, contact the Clerk to the Council Julie Chrimes on 01606 852444 or email clerktoipc@hotmail.co.uk

What is a councillor? Councillors are elected to represent an individual geographical unit on the council, known as a ward or - parish – in Cuddington the vacancy is in Sandiway Ward. They are generally elected by the public every four years, but there is a Co-option space available on the Parish Council at the moment as Councillor Evans has given his resignation to the Parish Council.

What do councillors do? Councillors have three main components to their work.

- 1. Decision making - Through meetings and attending committees with other elected members, councillors decide which activities to support, where money should be spent, what services should be delivered and what policies should be implemented.
- 2. Monitoring - Councillors make sure that their decisions lead to efficient and effective services by keeping an eye on how well things are working.
- 3. Getting involved locally - As local representatives, councillors have responsibilities towards their constituents and local organisations. These responsibilities and duties often depend on what the councillor wants to achieve and how much time is available.
- 4. How much time does it take up? Quite often councillors say that their duties occupy them for about an hour a week. Obviously there are some councillors who spend more time than this - and some less, but in the main, being a parish councillor is an enjoyable way of contributing to your community, and helping to make it a better place to live and work.

As a councillor representing your community you will help keep it a great place to live and work. You will be supported in your role and will be expected to undertake training. You should be comfortable working electronically. You should have a positive outlook and a can-do attitude and be willing to work as part of a team. If after reading this notice you are interested in applying please contact the clerk to the council using the above details.
