VACANCY: EDITOR OF THE ROUND TOWER NEWSLETTER

Firstly, Cuddington Parish Council would like to thank the current Editor of the Round Tower Newsletter, Nicola Brown, for her many years of hard work and service to the community. The Round Tower Newsletter has become a welcome feature of village life and many of us look forward to collecting a copy or reading it on-line each month.

Are you interested in being the next editor of the Round Tower Newsletter or do you know someone who would be interested? This role is voluntary and requires around eight hours of time each month to gather, write and produce the final copy; which is proof read by the Parish Council before publication. The Round Tower Newsletter offers a variety of information from routine schedules on the calendar to reports on special events and celebrations such as Gala Day.

If you think you have the skills and qualities to be the next Editor of the Round Tower Newsletter please email a letter of application and your CV to Julie Chrimes, Clerk to Cuddington Parish Council at: julie.c@cuddingtonparish.gov.uk by 30th April 2026.

ABOUT TEA FOR THE TREE

Every cup of tea and slice of cake counts! Your fundraising helps The Joshua Tree provide vital emotional, practical, and wellbeing support to families living with childhood cancer. Whether you host a small gathering or a big community event, every contribution helps families access therapies, counselling, family experiences, and much more. So, why not host a Tea for the Tree get-together! It is a great way to bring people together and make a real difference. You can host your event on any day in May that suits you, at home, at work, in a café, or even in your garden! Make it as simple or as special as you want!
