Message From The Ark Team,

In January we'll be reading applications for contributions from our 2024 profits. If you represent a local organization or group which would like some support, please call Kathryn on 889879 for details.

Last year we supported Sandiway Rainbows, St Luke's Hospice and both our local primary schools.

If you're interested in volunteering any Friday at the Ark, please come along on Friday 14th February, 10-11.30am to find out what's involved. Coffee & cake will obviously be served!

Wishing all our customers and volunteers a very peaceful season and please come back to us when we reopen at 10am on February 21st

TOY APPEAL

You will start to see beautiful Trees of Wishes posters dotted around the Ward. Each tree contains wooden baubles

- Each represents a child in this ward who could do with some extra financial support this Christmas. Details contained on the bauble are a child's gender, age and likes

How you can help

- If it is financially comfortable for you to do so, please take a bauble and purchase, ideally 2 gifts (or more) for them based on their preferences – The poster says a maximum £10 spend but please feel free to spend whatever you can afford.
- Pop the gifts in a gift bag (not wrapped) and return to where you got the bauble.
- VERY IMPORTANT - PLEASE ATTACH THE BAUBLE TO THE GIFT BAG SO WE KNOW WHO IT'S FOR!

Please return all gifts to the drop off point by Tuesday 17 December to allow time to distribute to the schools.

Your help will make a big difference to the lives of local children and their families in this Ward this Christmas. Please don't worry if you financially can't help, your support is just as important.

A huge thank you to all the locations who are kindly hosting a poster and drop off point. Thank you so much
