THE 32 MEN OF CUDDINGTON & SANDIWAY WHO GAVE THEIR LIVES IN WORLD WAR I AND WORLD WAR II

This latest, thoroughly researched book from local historian, Jill King, documents the lives of the 32 servicemen whose names are listed on the memorial plaque in St. John's Church.

The 120+ A4 pages include 217 illustrations in both black and white and colour. These include original documents, newspaper cuttings and letters from the time as well as many treasured family photographs.

It is learnt where those who fell lived and worked, about their families and the anguish their loss caused. There are poignant anecdotes from family and friends and details of each casualty's service, when and how they came to lose their lives, and where they are remembered.

Our sacrifice costs £15 and will have a very limited print run so if you want to be really sure of a copy either contact the publisher: editor @cc-publishing.co.uk ~or~ Jill and Roger King: roghax@talktalk.net

From rural idyll to the living hell of war, the horrors faced by what were, in the main, simple country lads does not make for comfortable reading but accounts of their sacrifice need to be told and remembered. Their names have for too long been just inscriptions on memorials. There is a moving story behind each and every one of these 32 brave young men.

Cuddington Neighbourhood Plan

Cuddington's Opportunity to influence Local Planning Decisions

Cheshire West and Chester Council have concluded the Regulation 15 public consultation and have appointed an external examiner. He has begun to review the plan and has already clarified some points with the Parish Council.

You can see the Plan on the village website: www.cuddingtonandsandiwayonline.org where you can also access the feedback from the Regulation 15 consultation and read all the current correspondence. If you do not have internet access you can go to the library where staff can help you to access it you on their computers. You may need to book a time so please ring the library on 01606 271767.

Don't forget that when the plan is finally approved by the examiner, all our residents will be asked to vote in a Referendum. The Neighbourhood Plan Steering Group will keep you informed of progress.

REMEMBER THIS IS YOUR PLAN!!

PARISH COUNCIL APPROVES "HERE IS WHAT WE DO"

At the July Parish Council meeting councillors approved a document entitled 'Here is What we Do'. John Faulkner Chairman of the Council says, "it should make an interesting and informative read. Briefly it sets out the role of the Parish Council in the community, working with other bodies particularly Cheshire West and Chester Council and where appropriate filling in gaps. A major role of the Parish Council is to represent and promote the parish". A copy is available via www.candsonline.org Go to Local Councils and then Parish Council. There is also a copy on the Parish Council notice board at the Library.
